

Hi. Using XM radio on a daily base and utilizing the latest technology in the world is a great represented to consumers that benefit from this technology. I think XM radio does make a difference specially ALL the channels that provide the last news, music, and Local Weather and Traffic channel. I think that illiminating such a great service will mean the end of sattelite radio, might as well sattelite TV Channels, and thats a shame.